

Bioethics and Political Philosophy: Nordic Perspectives

Workshop on Well-Being, Beneficence and Harm, University of Iceland, June 1–4, 2022

Hosted by the Centre for Ethics, University of Iceland

Location: Skálholt Center

Wednesday, June 1

- 17:15 Bus leaves from Reykjavík Bus Terminal
- 18:30 Arrival in Skálholt
- 19:00 Dinner

Thursday, June 2

Morning session Chair: Vilhjálmur Árnason (University of Iceland)

- 08:30–09:30 Anna Smajdor (University of Oslo)
Epigenetics, Harm and the Non-Identity Problem
Commentator: Morten Ebbe Juul Nielsen (University of Copenhagen)
- 09:40–10:40 Per Algander (Umeå University)
Can the Non-Identity Intuition and the Neutrality Intuition Be Reconciled?
Commentator: Jay Zameska (University of Tartu)
- 10:40–11:00 Coffee break
- 11:00–12:00 Joona Räsänen (Aarhus School of Business)
What Is Personality Discrimination and Is It Wrong? A (Bio)Ethical Analysis
Commentator: Anna Gotlib (Brooklyn College, Fulbright Specialist)
- 12:00–13:30 Lunch

Afternoon session Chair: Greg Bognar (Stockholm University)

- 13:30–14:30 Anna Gotlib (Brooklyn College, Fulbright Specialist)
There Are No Stories Here: Trauma, Identity, and Liminality in an (American) Hospital
Commentator: Eyja Margrét Brynjarsdóttir (University of Iceland)
- 14:40–15:40 Shu Ishida (Osaka University)
Autonomy, Adaptive Preferences, and Disability: From the Perspective of Quasi-Perfectionist Welfarism
Commentator: Joona Räsänen (Aarhus School of Business)
- 15:40–16:10 Coffee break
- 16:10–17:10 Jenny Krutzinna (University of Bergen)
A Duty to Protect: Public Responsibility for the Well-Being and Best Interests of Marginalised Children
Commentator: Salvör Nordal (Ombudsman for Children and University of Iceland)

18:30–20:00	Workshop dinner
20:00–22:00	Evening session in the sitting room Vilhjálmur Árnason (Iceland, moderator) and Eyja Margrét Brynjarsdóttir (Iceland) share their views on how COVID-19 was handled in Iceland. Kristine Bærøe (Norway), H. Orri Stefánsson (Sweden), Jesper Ryberg (Denmark), and Shu Ishida (Japan) reflect on experiences in their countries. General discussion.

Friday, June 3

Morning session	Chair: Vilhjálmur Árnason (University of Iceland)
08:30–09:30	Thomas Søbirk Petersen (Roskilde University) Are You Game? A Critical Discussion of a Game-Theoretical Argument in Favour of Banning Doping in Sport Commentator: H. Orri Stefánsson (Stockholm University)
09:40–10:40	Morten Ebbe Juul Nielsen (University of Copenhagen) Odysseus in Bondage: Does Self-Paternalism Raise Any Normative Concerns? Commentator: Jenny Krutzinna (University of Bergen)
10:40–11:00	Coffee break
11:00–12:00	Kristine Bærøe (University of Bergen) Translational Ethics: Justified Roles of Bioethicists Within and Beyond Lifecycles of Artificial Intelligence Systems in Health Commentator: Thomas Søbirk Petersen (Roskilde University)
12:00–13:30	Lunch
Afternoon session	Chair: Greg Bognar (Stockholm University)
13:30–14:30	H. Orri Stefánsson (Stockholm University) Identified Lives “Bias” as Decreasing Marginal Value of Chances Commentator: Per Algander (Umeå University)
14:40–15:40	Jay Zameska (University of Tartu) How Can We Fairly Distribute Risks of Harm? Commentator: Anna Smajdor (University of Oslo)
15:40–16:10	Coffee break
16:10–17:10	Jesper Ryberg (Roskilde University) Crime Preventive Treatment and Non-Ideal Political Theory Commentator: Shu Ishida (Osaka University)
19:00	Workshop dinner

Saturday, June 4

09:00	Departure for sightseeing from Skálholt
15:00	Arrival in Reykjavík