

Bioethics and Political Philosophy: Nordic Perspectives

Workshop on Well-Being, Beneficence and Harm, University of Iceland, June 1–4, 2022

Hosted by the Centre for Ethics, University of Iceland

Location: Skálholt Center

Wednesday, June 1

17:15 Bus leaves from Reykjavík Bus Terminal

18:30 Arrival in Skálholt

19:00 Dinner

Thursday, June 2

Morning session Chair: Greg Bognar (Stockholm University)

08:30–09:30 Anna Smajdor (University of Oslo)
Epigenetics, Harm and the Non-Identity Problem
Commentator: Morten Ebbe Juul Nielsen (University of Copenhagen)

09:40–10:40 Per Algander (Umeå University)
Can the Non-Identity Intuition and the Neutrality Intuition Be Reconciled?
Commentator: Jay Zameska (University of Tartu)

10:40–11:00 Coffee break

11:00–12:00 Joonas Räsänen (Aarhus School of Business)
What Is Personality Discrimination and Is It Wrong? A (Bio)Ethical Analysis
Commentator: Anna Gotlib (Brooklyn College)

12:00–13:30 Lunch break

Afternoon session Chair: Pall Thorsteinsson (University of Iceland)

13:30–14:30 Julia Mosquera (Institute for Futures Studies)
From Brute Luck to Expensive Tastes: New Technologies, Disability, and the Change in Perception about Responsibility for Disability
Commentator: Eyja Margrét Brynjarsdóttir (University of Iceland)

14:40–15:40 Shu Ishida (Osaka University)
Autonomy, Adaptive Preferences, and Disability: From the Perspective of Quasi-Perfectionist Welfarism
Commentator: Joonas Räsänen (Aarhus School of Business)

15:40–16:10 Coffee break

16:10–17:10 Jenny Krutzinna (University of Bergen)
A Duty to Protect: Public Responsibility for the Well-Being and Best Interests of Marginalised Children
Commentator: Salvör Nordal (Ombudsman for Children and University of Iceland)

- 18:30–20:00 Workshop dinner
- 20:00–22:00 Evening session in the sitting room
Vilhjálmur Árnason and Eyja Margrét Brynjarsdóttir (University of Iceland) share their views on how COVID-19 was handled in Iceland. Kristine Bærøe (Norway), H. Orri Stefánsson (Sweden), Jesper Ryberg (Denmark), and Shu Ishida (Japan) reflect on experiences in their countries. General discussion.

Friday, June 3

Morning session Chair: Vilhjálmur Árnason (University of Iceland)

- 08:30–09:30 Thomas Søbirk Petersen (Roskilde University)
Are You Game? A Critical Discussion of a Game-Theoretical Argument in Favour of Banning Doping in Sport
Commentator: H. Orri Stefánsson (Stockholm University)
- 09:40–10:40 Morten Ebbe Juul Nielsen (University of Copenhagen)
Odysseus in Bondage: Does Self-Paternalism Raise Any Normative Concerns?
Commentator: Jenny Krutzinna (University of Bergen)
- 10:40–11:00 Coffee break
- 11:00–12:00 Kristine Bærøe (University of Bergen)
Translational Ethics: Justified Roles of Bioethicists Within and Beyond Lifecycles of Artificial Intelligence Systems in Health
Commentator: Thomas Søbirk Petersen (Roskilde University)
- 12:00–13:30 Lunch break

Afternoon session Chair: Greg Bognar (Stockholm University)

- 13:30–14:30 H. Orri Stefánsson (Stockholm University)
Identified Lives “Bias” as Decreasing Marginal Value of Chances
Commentator: Per Algander (Umeå University)
- 14:40–15:40 Jay Zameska (University of Tartu)
How Can We Fairly Distribute Risks of Harm?
Commentator: Commentator: Anna Smajdor (University of Oslo)
- 15:40–16:10 Coffee break
- 16:10–17:10 Jesper Ryberg (Roskilde University)
Crime Preventive Treatment and Non-Ideal Political Theory
Commentator: Julia Mosquera (Institute for Futures Studies)
- 19:30 Workshop dinner

Saturday, June 4

- 09:00 Departure for sightseeing from Skálholt
- 15:00 Arrival in Reykjavík